1. Introduction

The Promotion of Access to Information Act of 2000 came into effect in March 2001. The purpose of this Act is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by public or private bodies, and which is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

In terms of Section 14(1) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, the information officer of all public bodies are required to compile a manual that provides information regarding the subjects and categories of records held by such private bodies. This manual is intended to fulfill this requirement.

Accordingly, this manual provides a reference to the records we hold and the process that needs to be adopted to access such records. All requests for access to information (other than information that is available to the public) should be addressed to the contact person as identified in section 7 of this manual, as he/she is our designated Information Officer.

2. Overview of the public bodies functions, services and its structure

2.1 Functions

The functions of local government are -

- a. to provide democratic and accountable government for local communities;
- b. to ensure the provision of services to communities in a sustainable manner;
- c. to promote social and economic development;
- d. to promote a safe and healthy environment; and
- e. to encourage the involvement of communities and community organizations in the matters of local government.

Pixley ka Seme District Municipality's vision:

"Pixley Ka Seme DM, PIONEERS of DEVELOPMENT, a HOME and FUTURE for all!!!"

- Newsletters

4. Remedies available in respect of an act of the body or a failure to act by the body

The following remedies are available:

- Internal Appeals

An internal appeal is available in terms of Section 75 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2000. An internal appeal should be handled as follows:

Decision by:

Deputy Information Officer
Municipal Manager
The Executive Mayor

Appeal attended by noted:

The Municipal Manager
The Mayor
The Council

If all the internal appeals are denied and exhausted, the requestor may approach the Council in terms of Section 78 – 80 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2000.

5. Scope of the Manual

The information contained in this manual is applicable to the areas under the Municipality's jurisdiction.

6. Our philosophy on access to information that we hold

Pixley ka Seme District Municipality is in support of the Act

7. Administration of the Act

Our Information Officer, Mr RE Pieterse or proxy is duly authorized to ensure that the requirements of the Act are administered in a fair, objective and unbiased manner on behalf of Pixley ka Seme District Municipality.

9. Records that can be accessed without a formal request

Certain records can be accessed without the submission of a formal request (refer to Section 10 of this document for particulars regarding formal requests), including:

- Debtors' account
- Town Planning schemes
- Brochures

These records can be accessed in the following manner:

e-mail,
fax, or letter.

Additionally, we are required to ensure that certain records are available, in terms of the following Acts:

- Municipal Bylaws (input required from the public body here);
- The Occupational Health and Safety Act No. 85 of 1993;
- The Value-Added Tax Act No. 89 of 1991;
- Income Tax Act No. 58 of 1962;
- Basic Conditions of Employment Act No. 75 of 1997;
- Employment Equity Act No. 55 of 1998;

Regional Services Council Act Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 32 of 2000. Local Government: Demarcation Act, Act on Statistics.

Notification of the availability of records that can be accessed without a request, and records that are available in terms of the Acts listed above, is periodically (i.e. at least once annually) given to the Cabinet Minister of Justice. Insert appropriate notice as published by the government.

10. Procedure to follow when submitting a formal request of access to a record

A request for access to a record that does not fall within the categories identified in Section 9 of this manual must be done formally either via conventional mail, e-mail or fax.

This request should be in the prescribed format as defined in Form A of Annexure B as identified in Government Notice Number 187, Regulation 6. A request form is also available from our offices. The prescribed request fee should be attached (refer to Section 12 of this manual for more details on the fees).

If a requestor that seeks access to a record requires assistance in completing the prescribed access form, such assistance will be provided by a duly authorized and designated official, free of charge.

Our Information Officer will respond to a request for access as submitted in the required format within 30 days of receiving the request by indicating whether your request for access has been granted.

If access to a record/information is granted, our response will include:

- An indication of the access fee that should be paid upon gaining access (if any);
- An indication of the form in which the access will be granted;
- A notice that you may lodge an internal appeal or application with the court against the access fee to be paid or the form of the access, including guidance on the procedure and period for lodging the application or internal appeal.

If access to a record/information is denied, our response will include:

- Adequate reasons for the refusal; and

- Notice that the requestor may lodge an internal appeal or application with the court against the refusal of the request and the procedure, including the period, for lodging the internal appeal or court application. For details on the procedure, please refer to Chapter 1 and 2 of Part 4 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act.

Assuming your request of access is granted, you will be able to gain access to the requested records as soon as the applicable request fee has been paid.

Access will be granted to a record if the following criteria are fulfilled:

- The requestor complies with the procedural requirements in the Act relating to a request; and
- Access to the record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal as contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 2 of the Act.

11. Denial of access

Access must be refused in the following circumstances:

- Protecting commercial information that we hold about a third party (for example trade secrets: financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- Disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party;
- Disclosure of the information about a third party, supplied in confidence, will put third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- If disclosure would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- If disclosure would jeopardize the safety or life of an individual;
- If access to the record is prohibited in terms of Section 60(14) of the Criminal Procedure Act No. 51 of 1977
- The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the privilege has been waived;
- Records containing information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party and the disclosure is likely to expose the third party, a person that will be carrying on the research on behalf of the third party, or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.

Access may be refused in the following circumstances:

- If the record consists of information that was supplied in confidence by a third person and disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the future supply of similar information, or information from the same source and it is in the public interest that similar information, or information from the same source, should continue to be supplied;
- If disclosure would prejudice or impair the security of a building, structure or system or means of transport or any other property;
- If the record contains methods, techniques, guideline or procedures for the prevention detection, curtailment or investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of a law or the prosecution of alleged offenders;
- If the disclosure could jeopardize the economic interests or financial welfare of the Republic or the ability of Government to manage the economic affairs of the Republic;
- If the record contains financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the public body;
- Disclosure would reasonably expect that it would put a public body at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- If the record is a computer programme;
- Records containing information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a the public body and the disclosure is likely to expose the public body, a person that will be carrying on the research on behalf of the public body, or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.
- If the records contains an opinion, advice, report or recommendation obtained or prepared, an account of a consultation, discussion or deliberation that has occurred (including minutes of meetings) for the purpose or formulating a decision or making a policy or disclosure would frustrate the deliberative process;
- Disclosure could jeopardize the effectiveness of testing, examining or auditing procedures or methods used by the body;
- The record contains evaluative material and disclosure would breach an implied promise made to the person who gave it regarding his or her identity or the content of the material;
- The record contains preliminary, working or draft material;
- If the request is manifestly frivolous or vexatious or the work required to process the request would unreasonably divert the resources of the public body.

Access cannot be refused in the following circumstances:

- If the information is already publicly available;
- If the record is older than 20 years;
- About a third party who has consented to the disclosure;
- About product or environmental testing that would reveal serious public safety or environmental risk; or
- If the records contemplated in sections 34(1), 36(1), 37 (1) (a) or (b), 38(a) or (b), 40, 41 (1)(a) or (b), 42(1) or (3), 43(1) or (2), 44(1) or (2) or 45 of the Act would reveal evidence of a substantial contravention or failure to comply with the law, an eminent and serious public safety or environmental risk and disclosure would outweigh the harms contemplated in each section, if disclosed.

12. Fees

The applicable fees are prescribed in terms of the regulations that relate to the Promotion of Access to Information Act. There are two basic types of fees applicable in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act – “request” and “access” fees. The non-refundable request fee (currently R 35.00 exclusive of VAT) is payable on submission of the request for access to a record (unless the request is for personal records of the requestor in which event there is no applicable fee). The access fee is payable prior to gaining access to the records in the required form. The applicable fees are prescribed in terms of Part II of Annexure A as identified in Government Notice Number 187, Regulation 11.

13. Request for access to information about third parties

If you request access to a record that contains information about a third party, we are obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request and to give them an opportunity to respond by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event that the third party agrees to access to the record, access will be granted. You may appeal against a refusal of access by our Information Officer. Please refer to Part 4 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act for further details on the Appeal Process.

14. Records that cannot be found or that do not exist

If we searched for a record and believe that it either does not exist or cannot be found, we will notify you by way of an affidavit or affirmation that it is not possible to give you access to the requested record as we are
